

“A Lighthouse Guiding People to Christ”

The ways that Jesus works are numerous and often unexplainable. Throughout the Bible, Jesus continued to do the unexpected and defied social norms, especially with the way he interacted with people. We are starting a two-part series on how Jesus helps Peter and Paul grow; Jesus does not leave them where they are. Jesus continues to guide our lives as we enter into different seasons of life.

“Everyone walking this planet has a compelling God-given purpose. It’s unique to you. No one else can pull it off. It’s yours. It fulfills your deepest need for significance.”— L.C. Fowler,

“Stop watering things that were never meant to grow in your life. Water what works, what’s good, what’s right. Stop playing around with those dead bones and stuff you can’t fix, its over...leave it alone! You’re coming into a season of greatness. If you water what’s alive and divine, you will see harvest like you’ve never seen before. Stop wasting water on dead issues, dead relationships, dead people, a dead past. No matter how much you water concrete, you can’t grow a garden.” T.D. Jakes
