Reflection/Prayer by Robert Wood
A Thirty Day Experiment in Prayer

Father God,

Why is it that I think I must get somewhere, assume some position, be gathered together, or separated apart in the quite of my study to pray?

Why is it that I feel that I have to go somewhere or do some particular act to find you, reach you, and talk with you?

Your Presence is here

In the city- on the busy bus, in the factory, in the cockpit of the airplane

In the hospital- in the patients' rooms, in the intensive care unit, in the waiting room

In the home- at dinner, in the bedroom, in the family room, at my workbench

In the car- in the parking lot, at the stoplight.

Lord, reveal your presence to me everywhere, and help me become aware of your presence each moment of the day.

May your presence fill the nonanswers, empty glances, and lonely times of my life.

Amen

Many Blessings,
Pastor Mollie
