

“A Lighthouse Guiding People to Christ”

We are in Week 3 of our study focusing on the words of Jesus on the cross. We have listened to the words, Father Forgive them, and last week Today You will be with me in Paradise. This morning we will be looking at some of the hardest words to hear, “My God, My God, why have you forsaken me.” How can the son of God say these words? As we dive deeper this morning, we will begin to discover they are words of Hope. Let us explore together how these heartbreaking words are hope-filled.

Blessings,
Pastor Mollie

As we worship in person, all church services will continue to be posted after 1 pm each Sunday through the church website at chairesumc.com.

We are using “Seven Words” by Susan Robb. Those who listen to Jesus' last words from the cross will discover what He most wants them (the world) to hear and will experience an intimate and divine awe only available to those who are willing to draw near His cross. There will be a Zoom session on Tuesdays at 9 AM and an in-person study on Wednesdays at 5:00 PM. See Pastor Mollie for more information.

We Need YOU!

We need a back up for the Rick on Sunday mornings. He has been so faithful to take on the responsibility of operating sound and video during the church service.

Please consider helping out.

If you receive an email from a member of the church, please check the origination of the email very carefully. None of the church's accounts have been hacked, but it is very easy to send emails to members pretending to be another member using information from our church website, posted newsletters, etc. If you have a login to your REALM account, do not share it. The office has received such emails and bogus requests for REALM invitations lately.
